Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.

*We fly to you today
as your beloved children.*

*We ask you to intercede
for us with your Son,
as you did*

at the wedding in Cana.

*Pray for us, loving Mother,
and gain for our nation and
world, and for all our families
and loved ones, the protection
of your holy angels,
that we may be spared
the worst of this illness.*

*For those already afflicted,
we ask you to obtain the grace
of healing and deliverance.*

*Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful,
wipe away their tears
and help them to trust.*

*In this time of trial and testing,
teach all of us in the Church
to love one another
and to be patient and kind.*

*Help us to bring the peace
of Jesus to our land
and to our hearts.*

*We come to you
with confidence,
knowing that you truly are our
compassionate mother,
health of the sick and
cause of our joy.*

*Shelter us under the mantle
of your protection,
keep us in the embrace
of your arms,*

help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.

Amen.

*Santa Virgen de Guadalupe,
Reina de los ángeles y
Madre de las Américas,
Acudimos a ti hoy
como tus amados hijos.*

*Te pedimos intercedas
por nosotros ante tu Hijo,
así como lo hiciste
en las Bodas de Caná.*

*Ora por nosotros,
amorosa Madre, y obtén para
nuestra nación y para el mundo,
y para todas nuestras familias y
nuestros seres queridos,
la protección de tus santos
ángeles, que seamos librados
de lo peor de esta enfermedad.*

*Para aquellos que ya están
aflicidos, te pedimos que
obtengas la gracia de la sanación.*

*Escucha el lamento de quienes
están vulnerables y temerosos,
limpia sus lágrimas y
ayúdales a confiar.*

*En este tiempo de prueba,
enséñanos a todos en la Iglesia
a amarnos unos a otros y
a ser pacientes y amables.*

*Ayúdanos a traer la paz
de Jesús a nuestra tierra y
a nuestros corazones.*

*Venimos a ti con confianza,
sabiendo que tú eres realmente
nuestra madre compasiva,
la sanación de los enfermos y
la causa de nuestra alegría.*

*Danos albergue bajo el manto
de tu protección,
manténnos bajo tu abrazo,
ayúdanos siempre a conocer
el amor de tu Hijo, Jesús.*

Amén.

The PASTOR'S Corner

Pastor's note: I didn't complete and "official" Pastor's Corner this week, so Sister Lisa Marie decided to transcribe my homily from May 2nd. Please forgive any more casual expressions I use instead of my more formal approach to my Pastor's Corner. Thanks to Sister Lisa Marie for her hard work. (Sister's sub-note: "It's a great message Father, thanks for sharing it!").

We are coming to the conclusion of chapter six of John's gospel, his great discourse on the bread of life, which has shocked his listeners of course. He says, "Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood you will have no life within you." The disciples respond, "How can he give us his flesh to eat, this is too much for us!". And many of them left. This is a sad chapter—and there are many sad portions in the life of Jesus—as he continues to offer himself to others and not be accepted, or is completely rejected. Even his own disciples are having major problems with accepting what he has to offer. I suppose what they're looking for in reality is a God who will assist them on their journey. One who will help us when we need help as we will walk our path. We might think of God as our little guide, or our little healer, or our little friend who gives us food when we need it. But this is not the God that Jesus is saying He is he is. We can imagine him saying to us:

*"I am the God who will consume you if you accept me,
and that is what is required if you want any life at all.
This is how it is; this is what I offer you.
And that other life you live?
Where you walk your path and think you're making your own choices?
And ask for my help when you need it?
It is no life at all: it is just darkness, hunger, no breath."*

But this is the life most of us end up living, even those who are standing close to Jesus, looking for a little help here and there to comfort them, to help them on the path that they have chosen. Jesus asked if you want to pick your path and just come to me when you have need, and think that is as simple as walking in the choices you made when things go awry, that I'll be there to pick you up—of course he always is there, we know that; he tells us that—but it is hard. He is expecting a lot more of a covenant than that; a far greater unity than that. God is not some abstract separated entity that occasionally moves into our lives by surprise or only when we ask. Jesus is saying He is a God one who intimately, deeply into our souls, into our skin, into our tissues, into our bodies, into our thoughts and desires. That is our God. This is the unity He wants with us. On some levels he let's us choose. Of course the choices are ours; not Christ's. Beautiful God, who loves us perhaps far more than we want Him to. Perhaps that's the biggest challenge of all. The hardest saying of all. That God loves us too much.

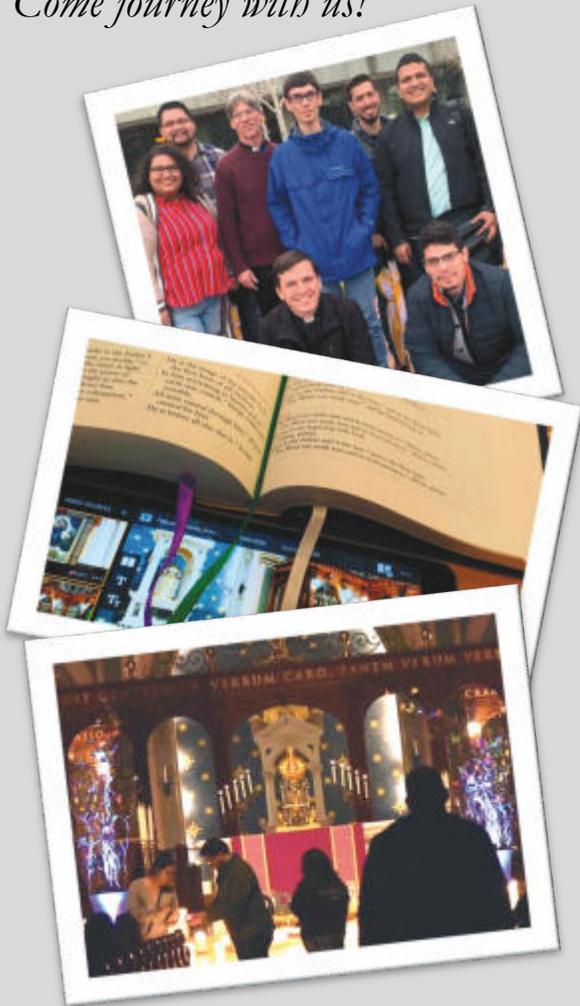

And we don't want that kind of love, that kind requires too much in this life. But that's what it is. Jesus tells us when we love God or try to love Him the way he loves us, that's when we will know what living is. He calls it eternal life, but in the end it is simply—life.

Cathedral
YOUNG ADULTS

We are a small but vibrant community of young adults on fire with our Catholic faith at all walks of life, from RCIA, single and married, to seminary. We feed the homeless, organize Night Fever adoration nights, celebrate Mass together, host game nights, and pray and discuss faith at happy hour. We are walking together on our own journeys toward Christ.

Come journey with us!

@cathedralyoungadults (Blog)

As a member of the Cathedral Young Adult group, I consider us to be a community-in-action. From our weekly feedings of our homeless brothers and sisters to preparation of breakfast for Sister Nora's Place at Loaves and fishes, to our monthly fellowship events and Nightfever adoration twice a year. We are a people of outward embrace and inward formation rooted in Christ.

Like many of you, we were devastated in light of the current COVID-19 crisis with the necessary shelter-in-place protocols. We needed to rethink how we express our spirit of outreach and our fellowship in a time when we are unable to receive Christ in the Eucharist nor be within six feet of each other. After much thought and prayer, we jumped into action. Our fellowship was moved online to weekly virtual support every Thursday evening on Zoom to pray together, support each other in our weekly struggles, and share the ways we are challenging ourselves to grow closer to Christ in the week to come. Although a masked and gloved skeleton crew of our members continue weekly feedings, our outreach primarily moved online with our Cathedral Young Adult Blog. In Lent, we began publishing weekly reflections written by a different members of our Young Adult community with the hope of providing members of our parish with positive content rooted in Christ. By allowing our Cathedral community to "walk with us" through our reflections on the Mass readings and finding Christ amidst our uncertainty, we hope we are fostering a sense of togetherness and unity for our readers. With the hundreds of weekly visitors to our site, we are happy that our blog has resonated with so many in our community. As the editor, I can also attest to how incredibly moving it has been to see the depth of inward reflection my fellow young adults have shared on this platform. We promote our blog on our Facebook page, but you can also visit our blog directly to see our all of our reflections and posts. We are pleased by all the new connections we have formed and old connections we have deepened in this time!

And finally, I want to recognize the work that has gone into keeping our Cathedral flock nourished through the daily Mass livestreams. Although livestreaming Mass is not an official ministry of the Young Adult community, several of our tech-savvy members have been working tirelessly to ensure that those of us at home are able to participate in Mass virtually. As I write this article quarantined at home, fellow Young Adults are setting up cameras, testing Father's microphone, looking over sheet music, and shrewdly inspecting iPad screens (all while keeping six feet apart) to provide a prayerful and spiritually-rich celebration of the Eucharist for us to enter into from the safety of our homes.

At times I feel so unworthy to count myself among a community of Catholic Young Adults who put their faith into action wherever they are. My fellow young adults are praying at home, supporting each other through Zoom, posting vulnerable reflections online, and selflessly giving their talents so that in a time where we cannot come to Mass, Mass can come to us. My fellow Young Adults, in this era of sheltering-in-place, have been a source of Christ's light, both in the darkness and on the screen. - by Victor Amador

This year God set us on a journey none of us expected. We began the catechetical year last September like many other years, with gatherings of catechists, registration for formation classes, and our weekly gatherings in prayer, song, and study of the faith. Being new to the Cathedral community, I was ready to walk in the shoes of the Canossian Sisters who went before me: Sr. Liz Chambers, Sr. Angela Furia, Sr. Connie Martinez, Sr. Mariangela Casagrande, and of course, Sr. Jenny Aldeghi. Such a wonderful legacy and I was looking forward to adding to it, and walk the expected path through the year with you. All was going as it should, that is, until our world was rocked by COVID-19. So, here we are, our classrooms empty waiting to have us return to “normal”. But with God, nothing is normal. He invites us to an adventure with Him, and we can look at our current circumstances in two ways: we can look back to what we had, or look ahead in anticipation to the great things the Lord wants to do in our disrupted lives.

We are walking a new course, and the Lord invites us to look to Him for our answers. Do you find yourself growing closer to God despite the struggles and worries of what the future holds for you? Yes, I feel it too, and so we must trust that despite our current events, the doors of the Church and our classrooms will open again. In the meantime, I encourage you to keep an eye out for our weekly lessons in your email box, and for some Summer program opportunities for enrichment. For those waiting for Sacraments, we are still waiting for the government to clear the shelter-in-place ordinance. Once we get the go-ahead, we will begin scheduling the revised dates for retreats and Sacraments. Let us be patient, and trust that all will come together in God’s time. We are in good hands.

The word of God continued to spread, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly. (Acts 6:7a)

PSALM

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you. (Ps 33) or Alleluia

GOSPEL

Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." (Jn 14:6)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When earthly lives end, especially when the person is younger, we tend to focus upon and consider what was lost. We think of lost opportunities — things they won't be able to see, babies they won't be able to cradle, and adventures that now must go undiscovered. Our minds create this chasm between earth and heaven that sees the losses of this life as permanent ones, never possible to achieve again. This perception causes many folks to remain stuck in their grief as they ponder all of the missed opportunities and regrets.

This is not resurrection thinking. All of the love that we can give and receive, the joy and elation that can be experienced, the adventures that can be undertaken, and the possibilities to be discovered are all part of a continuous journey. They are not ends in and of themselves but are all part of the unfolding of a relationship we have with God, who not only makes all of these wonderful things possible now but sustains them and fulfills them into eternity. The perception and experience of loss is really an illusion, because in God's eternal kingdom and in God's time, nothing is ever lost. Even the most intimate and tender of moments we can conceive of sharing with another human being are only part of a journey toward perfect intimate and tender moments to be shared with God in our resurrected life. We become like God and see God as He is in eternity. What greater joy, love, and hope can ever be discovered as we walk down our often dimly lit paths in this world.

This is an awesome wonder and magnificent news to behold. Call to mind someone you have lost in death. How do you see them now? How do you see yourself in heaven? Remind yourself, again, that God is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Our happiness is not going to be fully realized in this world, and there is nothing we can find here that cannot be found one hundred fold in eternity. It's all about relationship, and not solely about the relationships we have with each other, ourselves, and the world in which we live. It's about our relationship with God. If we realize how special that one relationship really is, then there is only one particular of heaven and life eternal that really matters: namely, that we fall into love eternal and discover truth. For when we finally close our eyes in death, then all will be well as long as we are with God. There are no losses, only gains.

每日當責 - 在日常生活中體驗天主為耶穌做見證

信仰之旅總不那麼容易。有時候最大的創傷，是承受我們的家人和友人，離開天主和拋棄我。他們年輕時持有的信德如今變得緊繃，或要他們每日與耶穌同行越發困難。對他們而言，耶穌成為伯多祿所說所形容的，對於不信任耶穌的人來說，祂是一塊絆腳石，和一块使人跌倒的磐石。看著我們親愛的人跌跌撞撞，真使我們心碎，我們信仰旅程真夠艱辛的。

這樣的情況我們該如何做呢？最重要的，我們要祈禱。我們必須認知天主能力遠大於我們。即使我們無法使人看到真理，祂可以。然後，我們會親眼見證耶穌在我們自己生活上的轉變能力，我們要用言語和行為為祂做見證，在門徒喜樂的臉上應該成為他人的啟發。讓耶穌藉著我們的工作使他人被耶穌吸引，最後，我們絕不要失去希望，許多人獨自走了很長的旅途，才發現天主仍在很遠的路上。你需要怎麼做才能將人帶給基督？是一個動作，一個字，或一種情感，我們從不知道如何去感動那些特定的人，就讓那親愛的人，是你生命中來自天主的禮物，將他們交到天主的手中，如果他們跌倒了就讓天主將他們扶起來

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP:
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
Witnesses for Jesus

This journey of faith is not always easy. Sometimes the greatest wounds are those we suffer when family members and friends wander away from God and leave us behind. The faith they had when they were younger is now strained, or they see the daily walking with Jesus to be too difficult. For them, Jesus becomes what Peter wrote about when he described Jesus as the stone that causes people to stumble and the rock that makes them fall. Our journey is hard enough, but watching a loved one stumble and fall is heart-breaking. What are we to do in such a situation? Most importantly, we pray. We must realize that God is more powerful than us, and even if we can't make them see the truth, He can. Then we witness to the transformative power of Jesus by our own lives. We need to serve him in word and deed. We should let a joy of being a disciple enlighten our faces. Allow Jesus to work through us so that others may be drawn to him. Lastly, we must never lose hope. Many have walked long journeys alone only to find God far down the road. What will it take to bring someone to Christ? It might be an action, a word, or an emotion. We never know how certain people will be touched. That loved one is a gift from God in your life. Place them back in God's hands, and let Him pick them up if they have stumbled and fallen.
