EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It's All in the Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand.

God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

A steward makes God's love visible by imitating Jesus

The servant and the little boy in our readings today are excellent examples for us as Christian stewards.

The servant gave the very best of what he had, and the boy gave all that he had, then God did the rest. A key component of living as a good steward is constantly evaluating our lives, particularly our relationship with God to ensure we are not just scraping by but rather giving God our entire lives.

We should ask ourselves — "how am I giving God my time, using my talents, and sharing my treasures?"

We need to find what works best for us so that God can become a more significant part of our daily lives. We are also called to put our gifts and talents to good use too. The servant and the boy teach us that it is not up to us to decide how our gifts will affect others. God will do that. All we need to do is to give it well.

Lastly, the servant reminds us that we are called to give the first fruits of our treasures. It is easy to give something; it is difficult to give the finest gift. Giving our best requires us to reevaluate our priorities in life.

When we strive to live out our call as Christian stewards by entrusting all that we have been given to the One who graciously gave us these gifts, we will be blessed beyond measure. As we begin a new week, let us spend some time evaluating our relationship with God by asking, 'what is my very best, and am I giving it to God?'

TODAY'S SECOND COLLECTION - MISSIONARY COOPERATIVE APPEAL

Today is the second collection for the Missionary Cooperative Appeal. This year we will have no missionaries present in our parish due to the pandemic. The goal of this appeal is to increase awareness of missionary work and to raise funds to help missionary organizations continue their evangelization efforts. You can place your donation in the baskets located at the back of the Cathedral. Special envelopes will be provided for your convenience. Donations made by check should be made payable to the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. Thank you for your generosity!

PASTOR'S CORNER

Summertime, with opportunities to be out in the wilderness or take time on trips vacationing, offers us the gift of getting away from the grind of our everyday work lives. Finding time to re-energize is an important element to a healthy life. Vacations can be as varied as staying home and resting or filling every moment with something to do. Often, the planning of the vacation seems more positive than the actual experience. In my own experience, my vacations tend to be far more energizing when I maintain the elements of my everyday life, specifically my connection with God and prayers. To confess, times in the past I have vacationed and have let slip my connection with God and the church. When I get back to my priestly ministry and life, I quickly realize why I was feeling empty rather than energized.

Jesus, too, needed to get away to re-energize. We know that when Jesus got away, it was to be alone and to be with his Father. This spiritual time away is also a necessary element to a healthy life. Aside from our regular prayer routine, we can make spiritual vacations known as retreats. This time away is specifically centered in spending time with God. Individuals can go on retreat as well as entire groups of people. There are many kinds of retreats to meet the varied spiritual needs of the faithful.

This weekend we had our parish retreat. Gathering in prayer and spending some time away from the ordinariness of our lives, including our parish life, helps us to gain greater insights into God's relationship with us. We had a great presence of people on the retreat, and all (I'm sure) were inspired by the presentations of Fr. Kastl. I pray that each one of you was able to be present and connect on deeper levels with God and other parishioners. If you were unable to make it to the parish retreat, make sure to get it on your calendars for next year. As well, we have our inspiring ACTS retreat twice a year in which we spend three whole days retreating with the Lord. The Cathedral men's ACTS retreat is in November. In addition, there are many opportunities to go on a retreat at different retreat centers and, of course, anyone can simply go up a mountain (or seashore or desert) and be alone with God.

I do thank all of you who made the time to be at the parish retreat. Your desire to know God and build up our parish community adds greater meaning to the ministries at the Cathedral. A special "Thank you" to Fr. Gary Kastl and the members of our Stewardship committee who worked so hard at bringing this retreat together. Looking forward to next year's retreat.

Fr. Michael

En este tiempo de verano, tenemos la oportunidad para estar en la naturaleza y tomar vacaciones para viajar, también nos ofrece el regalo de alejarnos de la rutina de nuestra vida laboral diaria. Al igual que encontrar tiempo para revitalizarse es un elemento importante para una vida saludable. Las vacaciones pueden ser tan variadas como quedarse en casa y descansar o llenar cada momento con algo que hacer. Muchas de las veces para planear unas vacaciones es más positivo que la verdadera experiencia. En mi propia experiencia, mis vacaciones tienden a tener mucha más energía que cuando mantengo los elementos de mi vida diaria, específicamente mi conexión con Dios y mis oraciones. Les confieso que en ocasiones del pasado me he ido de vacaciones y he dejado escapar mi conexión con Dios y la iglesia. Cuando vuelvo a mi ministerio y vida sacerdotal, rápidamente me doy cuenta de que porque me sentía vacío en un lugar lleno de energía.

Jesús también necesitaba alejarse para revitalizarse. Sabemos que cuando Jesús se escapó, fue para estar solo y con su Padre. Este tiempo espiritual también es un elemento necesario para una vida sana. Aparte de nuestra rutina regular de oración, podemos hacer que las vacaciones espirituales se reconozcan como retiros. Este tiempo fuera se centra específicamente en pasar tiempo con Dios. Los individuos pueden ir al retiro, así como grupos enteros de personas. Hay muchos tipos diferentes de retiros para satisfacer las diversas necesidades espirituales de los fieles.

Este fin de semana tuvimos nuestro retiro parroquial. Nos reunimos en oración y pasamos un tiempo alejados de la vida cotidiana, incluyendo la vida parroquial, nos ayuda a comprender mejor la relación de Dios con nosotros. Tuvimos una gran presencia de gente en el retiro y todos (estoy seguro) que les inspiró las presentaciones del P. Kastl. Oro para que cada uno de ustedes pueda estar presente y conectarse en niveles más profundos con Dios y otros feligreses. Si no pudo asistir al retiro parroquial, asegúrese de incluirlo en su calendario para el próximo año. Además, tenemos nuestro inspirador retiro de ACTS dos veces al año en el que pasamos tres días completos para estar juntos con nuestro Señor. El retiro de ACTS de la Catedral es para hombres en Noviembre. Además, hay muchas oportunidades para ir a un retiro en diferentes centros de retiro y, por supuesto, cualquiera puede simplemente subir a una montaña (a la orilla del mar o al desierto) y estar a solas con Dios.

Les agradezco a todos los que se tomaron el tiempo de estar en el retiro parroquial. Su deseo de conocer a Dios y construir nuestra comunidad parroquial agrega un mayor significado a los ministerios en la Catedral. Especialmente "Gracias" al P. Gary Kastl y los miembros de nuestro comité de Administradores que trabajaron tan duro para llevar a cabo este retiro. Esperemos el retiro del próximo año.

ESQUINA DEL PASTOR

Mary, the Model of good Stewardship María, modelo de buena corresponsabilidad

After Jesus, it is the Blessed Virgin Mary who by her example most perfectly teaches the meaning of discipleship and stewardship in their fullest sense. All of their essential elements are found in her life: she was called and gifted by God; she responded generously, creatively, and prudently; she understood her divinely assigned role as “handmaid” in terms of service and fidelity (see Lk 1:26-56). As Mother of God, her stewardship consisted of her maternal service and devotion to Jesus, from infancy to adulthood, up to the agonizing hours of Jesus’ death (Jn 19:25). As Mother of the Church, her stewardship is clearly articulated in the closing chapter of the Second Vatican Council’s Constitution on the Church, Lumen Gentium (cf. nos. 52-69). Pope John Paul II observes: “Mary is one of the first who ‘believed,’ and precisely with her faith as Spouse and Mother she wishes to act upon all those who entrust themselves to her as children” (Redemptoris Mater, no. 46). In light of all this, it only remains for all of us to ask ourselves this question: Do we also wish to be disciples of Jesus Christ? The Spirit is ready to show us the way—a way of which stewardship is a part.

Después de Jesús, la Santísima Virgen María es la que con su ejemplo nos enseña más claramente el significado completo de lo que es ser discípulo y cristiano corresponsable. Todos los elementos esenciales se pueden ver en su vida: ella fue llamada y bendecida por Dios; respondió generosamente, con creatividad y prudencia; comprendió el papel de “esclava” que Dios le dio en términos de servicio y fidelidad (ver Lc 1:26-56). Como Madre de Dios, su corresponsabilidad consistió en su servicio de madre a Jesús y su devoción hacia él, en su infancia, en su vida adulta y hasta en sus horas de agonía en la cruz (Jn 16:25). Como Madre de la Iglesia, su corresponsabilidad fue articulada claramente en el capítulo final del Concilio Vaticano II La Constitución dogmática sobre la Iglesia, Lumen Gentium (cf. 52-69). El Papa Juan Pablo II observa: “María es una de las primeras personas que creyó, y precisamente con su fe de Esposa y Madre ella desea ser mediadora de los que confían en ella como hijos” (Redemptoris Mater, 46). En vista de todo esto, sólo queda hacernos esta pregunta: ¿Deseamos también ser discípulos de Jesucristo? El Espíritu está listo a mostrarnos el camino — un camino del cual forma parte la corresponsabilidad.

Summer of Faith: The Creed—Week 3 is.gd/summerlesson
Verano de Fe: el credo - Semana 3

The Annunciation, the Immaculate Conception and the Incarnation. Adam and Eve broke the first covenant and the unity between Heaven and earth when they gave in to their pride and disobeyed God. As a result, we are all born with Original Sin. God sent His only Son to repair our hearts by dying on the Cross for us, thereby replacing sin and death with new life. A woman would have a role to play, too. A woman's disobedience had brought sin and death into the world, and a very special woman's obedience would deliver the Savior. She is the Blessed Virgin Mary, the "new Eve." "But when the fullness of time had come, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to ransom those under the law, so that we might receive adoption" (Galatians 4:4). The phrase "fullness of time," means that God's perfectly appointed time had arrived. God sent the angel Gabriel from Heaven. Gabriel appeared to a Jewish maiden named Mary and greeted her with the words, "Hail, favored one! The Lord is with you" (Luke 1:28). The first lines of the Hail Mary prayer come from this verse. "Mary said, 'Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word.' Then the angel departed from her" (Luke 1:38). Created in the image of God with intellect, free will, and the capacity to love, Mary freely chose to respond to God's call to love.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary ...

Scripture of the Week
Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

MEMORIZE!

CREDO DE LOS APÓSTOLES

Creo en Dios, Padre Todopoderoso, Creador del cielo y de la tierra. Creo en Jesucristo y gracia del Espíritu Santo; nacio de Santa Maria Virgen ...

Escritura de la semana
Dijo María: "He aquí la esclava del Señor; hágase en mí según tu palabra." Y el ángel dejándola se fue. —Lucas 1:38

La Anunciación, La Inmaculada Concepción y la Encarnación. Adán y Eva rompieron la primera alianza y la unidad entre el cielo y la tierra cuando sucumbieron ante su orgullo y desobedecieron a Dios. Como resultado, todos nacimos con pecado original. Dios envió a su único Hijo a reparar nuestros corazones por medio de su muerte en la Cruz, reemplazando el pecado y la muerte con una vida nueva. Una mujer tendría un papel importante también. La desobediencia de una mujer había traído pecado y muerte al mundo y la obediencia de una mujer muy especial, nos traería al salvador. Ella es la Santísima Virgen María, la "nueva Eva". "Pero, cuando llegó la plenitud de los tiempos, Dios envió a su Hijo, que nació de mujer y fue sometido a la Ley, con el fin de rescatar a los que estaban bajo la Ley, para que así recibiéramos nuestros derechos como hijos" (Gálatas 4, 4-5). La frase "plenitud de los tiempos" significa que el tiempo perfecto de Dios había llegado. Dios envió al ángel Gabriel desde los cielos. Gabriel apareció a una joven judía llamada María y la saludó con las palabras, "Alégrate, llena de gracia, el Señor está contigo" (Lucas 1, 28). Las primeras líneas del Ave María provienen de este versículo. i será llamado Hijo de Dios" (Lucas 1, 35). "Dijo María: 'Yo soy la servidora del Señor, hágase en mí tal como has dicho'. Después la dejó el ángel" (Lucas 1, 38). Creada a imagen de Dios, con intelecto, libre albedrío y con la capacidad para amar, María respondió libremente al llamado de Dios.
