

The Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament Privacy Policy

Protecting your private information is our priority. This statement of privacy applies to the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament, also referred to as the Cathedral and/or Cathedral Sacramento, and governs data collection and usage. For the purposes of the Privacy Policy only, unless otherwise noted, all references to the Cathedral include cathedralsacramento.org, Sacramento Cathedral ACTS, and saccathedralacts.org. The Sacramento Cathedral websites are news and information sites, and by using them, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

Collection of your Personal Information

In order to better provide you with services offered on our site, the Cathedral may collect personally identifiable information, such as your:

- First and Last Name
- Mailing Address
- Email address
- Phone number

We do not collect any personal information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us. However, you may be required to provide certain personal information to us when you elect to use certain services available on the site. These may include: (a) sending us an email, (b) registering as a parishioner, or (c) signing up to receive a newsletter, (d) submitting your credit card or other payment information to a specified third-party provider when donating to the cathedral. To wit, we will use your information for, but not limited to, communicating with you in relation to services you have requested from us. We also may gather additional personal or non-personal information in the future.

If you have provided your email address to us, we promise to use it only for the purposes for which it is provided. We will not use your email address to contact you for unrelated reasons. And we will not share your email address with any third parties.

Use of your Personal Information

The Cathedral collects and uses your personal information to operate its website(s) and deliver the services you have requested.

The Cathedral may also use your personally identifiable information to inform you of other services available from the Cathedral and its affiliates.

Sharing Information with Third Parties

The Cathedral does not sell, rent, or lease its visitor lists to third parties.

The Cathedral may share data with trusted partners to help perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, process a donation, or provide support. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to the Cathedral, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

The Cathedral may disclose your personal information, without notice, if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on the Cathedral or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of the Cathedral; and/or (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of the Cathedral, or the public.

Links

This website contains links to other sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the content or privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of any other site that collects personally identifiable information.

Social Media

The Cathedral provides connections to various social media outlets to help you share our content. Each of those links to the various social media outlets is governed by their Privacy Policy, and we have no control over that data.

Embedded content from other sites

Articles on this site may include embedded content (e.g. videos, images, articles, etc.). Embedded content from other websites behaves in the exact same way as if the visitor has visited the other website.

These websites may collect data about you, use cookies, embed additional third-party tracking, and monitor your interaction with that embedded content, including tracking your interaction with the embedded content if you have an account and are logged in to that website.

Security of your Personal Information

The Cathedral secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. The Cathedral uses the following methods for this purpose:

- SSL Protocol

When personal information is transmitted to other websites, it is protected through the use of encryption, such as the Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) protocol.

We strive to take appropriate security measures to protect against unauthorized access to or alteration of your personal information. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, you acknowledge that: (a) there are security and privacy limitations inherent to the Internet which are beyond our control; (b) security, integrity, and privacy of any and all information and data exchanged between you and us through this Site cannot be guaranteed.

Children under Thirteen

The Cathedral does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under the age of thirteen. If you are under the age of thirteen, you must ask your parent or guardian for permission to use this website.

Email Communication

From time to time, the Cathedral may contact you via email for the purpose of providing announcements, alerts, confirmations, and/or general communication. In order to improve our services, we may receive a notification when you open an email from the Cathedral or click on a link therein.

If you would like to stop receiving communications via email from the Cathedral, you may opt out of such communications by clicking the "Unsubscribe" button on the email.

Additional Rights of EEA (European Economic Area) residents

If you are a resident of a country in the EEA, you have the rights, among others, to:

- (i) access your personal data
- (ii) ensure the accuracy of your personal data
- (iii) the right to have us delete your personal data
- (iv) the right to restrict further processing of your personal data, and
- (v) the right to complain to a supervisory authority in your country of residence in the event that data is misused

If you believe that our processing of your personal information infringes data protection laws, you have a legal right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority responsible for data protection. You may do so in the EU member state of your residence, your place of work or the place of the alleged infringement.

You may exercise any of your rights in relation to your personal data by written notice to us addressed to the following email: cathedralsacramento@gmail.org

Changes to this Statement

The Cathedral reserves the right to change this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you about significant changes in the way we treat personal information by sending a notice to the primary email address specified in your account, by placing a prominent notice on our site, and/or updating any privacy information on this page. Your continued use of the Site and/or services available through this Site after such modifications will constitute your (a) acknowledgement of the modified Privacy Policy; and (b) agreement to abide and be bound by that Policy.

Contact Information

The Cathedral welcomes your questions or comments regarding this Statement of Privacy. If you believe that the Cathedral has not adhered to this statement, please contact:

Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament
1017 11st Street
Sacramento, CA 95814

Email: cathedralsacramento@gmail.com
Telephone: 916-444-3071